

STINGER SPORTS

February 19, 1988

WOMEN'S HOCKEY

Concordia overwhelmed the 4th place John Abbott Islanders last Tuesday by a 8-0 score. The Lady Stingers have a 10-1-1 record in league play and are currently 2nd in the Q UHL one point behind their Quebec City rival, Laval.

Therese Brisson (Dollard des Ormeaux, Que.) Concordia's Female Athlete of the Year last year, had 2 goals and 1 assist as Concordia outshot John Abbott 37-10. First year Stinger Nancy Moore also had a fine game with 1 goal and 2 assists. Moore has 15 points in only 4 league games.

Donna Serrati (5th), Lisa Morgan (2nd), France Sabourin (5th), Line Mercier (7th) and Janet Neely (18th) had the other markers for the Stingers.

Concordia travels to Trois Rivières to take on UQTR. The Stingers face unbeaten Laval Saturday, February 27 in Quebec City.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The Concordia Women's basketball team fell once again to Laval last Tuesday. The Lady Stingers who led 22-16 after 20 minutes couldn't come back strong enough in the second half and lost the game 49-36.

All Canadian candidate Carol Assalian (Montreal, Que.) led Concordia's offense with 15 points including a threepointer. First year Stinger Suzi Czelnai with an aggressive rebounding touch, pulled down 13 rebounds. The 6' Montreal native has now 150 rebounds overall this year (33 in league play) the highest total for the Stingers.

The Lady Stingers travel to McGill and Bishop's next week as the season ends.